Dear Michelle, Evan and the entire family, We were so very sorry to hear the sad news about Sharon. May the family not know of anymore sorrow and may she rest in peace. Love, Shelley, Steve Pincus and family We will always remember as a child how talented she was when she got up to sing "Tomorrow" at Matthew Pincus' Bar Mitzvah. She really was a special young lady!

Sharon was a wonderful caring person who never looked at what life didn't give her but what she had to share. She will be sorely missed.

Sharon showed true class which is grace under pressure reminding us all that it is not what you accumulate in life but how you share it. She showed us all true strength through adversity. She will be truly in our hearts, our thoughts and our memories. Bravo to her family for their strength and support through such difficult times. We all have warm memories. Bravo to you all. Erika and Steve
