Alice would meet regularly with her lady friends (from Publix). She'd welcome them joyously into her home and into her heart. If you were in Alice's heart, you always felt 'welcomed' not tolerated. Her feelings and actions were genuine - like it or not. Linda, you'll always feel the void for your Momma & Dad - no one, nothing - takes their place. So cry, my dear friend, cry; as loud as you want and as long as you want. . . But know that it's for you (and your loved ones) that you cry. We mourn for ourselves. It's our loss - not hers. Alice is fine - she's far, far beyond 'fine'. She's dancing with your Dad, she's beside your cousin helping her make lasagna, she's in your daughters' hearts bringing them closer to you, she's in your head encouraging you to enjoy your precious life. Know without any doubt that she's not 'somewhere else' - She's all over - she's anywhere she wants to be. When ever you need her, Linda, feel her presence. It's very real - as real as her love for you. . . Love, Fran Antonelli

Alice Corpaci Linda posting on moms Facebook in loving memory. We will be having a celebration of life service at 3pm at our house on Sunday at 3pm. I want to say thank you to our Vitas hospice team #154 who have shared there time,knowledge,service and most of all love and affection to momma this past year and a half or so. It was a big decision to join hospice. Diane was with us supporting us. When mom joined up the time was right. They have kept her well cared for and have gone above and beyond the call of duty. They loved my momma and momma enjoyed their company and care- team 154; Mary,Shelley,Omar,Rae,Dr. Kanner and Adonika and all the support staff. A good fit!amazing group of people. Picture is of Omar and Mary who along with Rae on their day off came in to offer support when it became apparent it was time to say goodbye along with the attending nurse Heidi ,Dr. Kanner and RN O-----. They all told stories of their times with momma and she new they were all there for her to support her and the rest of our family in the end. An amazing group of people. Special thanks to Shelley for arranging and starting up the crisis around the clock care. I don't know what i would have done without Marie ,Erika and Heidi through the night and then the day. I dont know what i would have done without the support of our very dear friend Donna who dropped everything to be with us and ofcourse my husband who always does the rite thing...thank God for Rae who let me know it was time to start calling, my nephew Michael and sister in law Debbie were able to say goodbye,followed by Nicole,Marie and Anthony,Maurice and Donna. Momma passed at home where she wanted to be with me by her side . so hard to let go. In the end she opened her eyes and i believe she said I love you. It was the first time she spoke or opened her eyes in hours. I told her we will be ok. It was the last time my mom opened her eyes or spoke. Godspeed momma we will love and remember you always. If i can be even half the person,the mom you have been i will be doing great.....love forever your daughter linda
