Karen lit a candle in honor of Ruth.

I think about Ruth very often as she was a long time family friend of my parents. When my mom passed away she made it a point to call me every week to see how I was doing as she said my mom was no longer around to call me - it was the sweetest gesture and I will never forget it. Ruth and Al knew me since I was born and were both there for many milestone events in my life - I always considered them family and they are missed. I have many wonderful pictures of Ruth with my mom and with other friends as well and I cherish them as well as all the great memories I have. Rest in peace Ruth - you are with Al again. Love, Karen
