Schwartz, Murray 93, of Plantation, Tamarac and Lauderdale, FL passed away on July 10, 2014. Born in Brooklyn, New York, Loving Son and Brother, Husband of 66 years to his Beloved late wife Blanche Pearl Schwartz. Honored Father, Grandfather, Great Grandfather and Brother-in law to the late Lillian Pearl. He is survived by his: daughter Janet and Noel Carter; daughter Karen and Otto Ledee; son Alan and Linda Schwartz; granddaughters and grandsons Michele (Carter) and Bill Slavicsek, Rabbi Yehuda (Brian) and Joelle Carter, Melissa (Tenen) and Jason Sheridan, Ashley Schwartz, and David Schwartz; great granddaughters and grandsons Miriam Naomi, Mendel Yaacov, Menuchah, Shifrah and Dvora Brina Carter; Shailyn and Calum Sheridan; Cynthia (Kippy) Carter; and the extended family of Segal's, Schwartz's and Chris Kantrowitz. Murray was a WWII Veteran, who served with Honor in New Guinea and the Philippines. Murray was an amazing and gregarious man, who impacted our lives in deeply meaningful ways as an eternal optimist, a wonderful mentor and as a very proud father and grandparent, who taught us about the joyful things in life. In retirement, he excelled as a photo artist, a connoisseur of classical music, and generously shared his love of the fine arts with community residents. Graveside services were held at Lakeside Cemetery. In his memory, contributions can be made to the charitable organization of your choice. We wish to thank and extend our heartfelt appreciation to the Vitas Hospice in Tamarac, the Lenox on the Lake and to dear friends for all their comforting and loving support.
