Ike was definitely a character. Always making others laugh. In the years I knew him and watched him give, I witnessed great kindness to others in need, I believe should be remembered. I remember Him walking me through one of his developments on Miami Beach, in the early 90's. He stopped and asked for one of the construction workers. We went to the man, and Ike went on to say how he heard the man was on hard times, and he wanted to help him and his family. He asked about his family and handed the man a check, a big one to help with bills. I could go on with several instances, I saw a business man, that is stubborn as they come, just share with his heart. I had to say this, because Isaac Touched my life and taught me much that I carry with me. Thank You Ike. Have Fun.

Where would one start. My grandmother traded 2 properties for 2 places where Ike lived in 1976. Bay County Club on 177th St. off Collins Ave. Within a few months of moving there myself and Ike became like (as he would say same age brothers) He never really believed he was older than 30 EVER. It was a unique friendship and a carousel of meeting women in a time when that was allowed. My man Ike good and bad but definitely educational.
