Sharon Pettit posted:

I met Barb more than 40 years ago and we instantly became "BFF". She was a "social butterfly", always searching for some event that we could attend ranging from taking cruises to physical activities such as dancing, tennis and bike riding! Barb would make anyone feel welcome within minutes of talking with her. Even though Barb was using a walker for years, believe it or not, she would inform anyone who was interested, she could teach that person how to do the Charleston!!! (And would continue by actually performing the dance with her walker!) I will miss her! Love you, Best Friend, FOREVER! Sharon
