Allen, I'm still in shock and disbelief. We had fun times and loved watching you torture the kids. Especially when Hannah was 4 and Uncle Froggy was born. Of course we loved torturing you back, me sharing a drink with the kids at Disney was a fast way to do that. I know there was so much more you could do in life. I hope you can now find some peace. With lots of love and memories. -Erin

You meant so much to so many people, Allen. You may not have believed so in life, but you will be sorely missed. So much potential that will never be realized. You meant the world to your only niece and nephew - you were their Uncle Froggy, and you always will be. There are many good memories - and we will do our best to hang on to those. Although you could not find it in life we all wish you peace.
