Joan was a sweet and loving, caring mother and grandmother. Have known her many many years. My treasured memories of her came every New Years Eve at the special "Geller" gatherings usually at Hillary and Anthony's home. First it was always a wonderful memorable dinner out at a very nice restaurant with the Geller family then back to Hillary's for karaoke singing, games and MORE food and a New Years toast! I will truly miss her great smile and conversations we had together on New Years Eve. Will miss you Joan. Love always, Jan

Since I met my mother-in-law, Joan, she welcomed me into the family with open arms. She was a warm and caring person, who never saw the bad in people. Everyone who knew her wanted to be her friend. She had the most genuine smile and the biggest heart. She was always surrounded by the people who loved her the most, her family. She always treated me as one of her own kids. I will truly miss being with her and seeing her smiling face every day. I will carry the memories of her in my heart forever. I love you more than words can say. With Love, your daughter-in-law, Trish.

You used to call me your little angel but now its my turn to call you my angel. You weren't just a grandma to me, but a friend. I remember spends nights at your house playing card games and watching Disney movies over and over (especially Mulan) and you never complained once because you were just so happy to be spending time with me. You would tell me every time I saw you "have I told you today how much I love you?" and I Would respond "of course grandma, but you can tell me again". You've made such an impact on my life since the day I was born and I am just so lucky to have had you as a grandma. You could always bring a smile to my face. You are a beautiful person inside and out and I love you more than words can describe. Even though I hate the thought of you not being here with us I know you are in a better place now reunited with grandpa. I could go on forever about you but all the memories I need are in my heart. I love you and I know some day we will be together again. Rest in peace my angel. Love always, your granddaughter Stephanie
