It is too late now but I truly wish we had stayed in touch. We were good friends for many years both at work and in our personal life. Time is one thing you can never get back and it allowed us to drift apart what with my moves from South Florida and a few petty disagreements over minor differences of opinion. My condolences to his extended family. A word to all-you will never recapture the days you waste not staying in touch or just even saying a kind hello from time to time, which I now truly regret. My sympathies to his family and friends.

Joel and I were great friends when he was at Shocker. Many a night we had dinner together at different restaurants around Hallandale and did some really crazy things. If Joe was your friend he was your friend and there was no question about it and he would stand behind his friends 100% a great guy I will miss him even though I have not had contact with him for the past 15 years.
