Although it is less than a week, I miss you so. From the first time we met, we made an instant connection. In my 77 years here on earth, I've come to realize that the friendship we forged is rare and precious. We had such a love of books, people and shared so many difficulties together. I will not soon forget the comfort you imparted to me through your wisdom, and I hope that in some small way I was able to be there for you. Rest in peace my dear friend, Henny and my condolences to your sister and your family. Please watch over GEORGE and I till we met again someday. Your friend Claire
