I remember the first time I met Mrs. Greenstein. She had the most radiant smile and I was struck by how lovely she was. She was very elegant. Cindy and I were in high school at the time and I learned from both Irene and Cindy that beauty and style are inherited traits. My condolences.

To know you , my precious Cindy is to have known your mama .. For she couldn't have done a better job being a wonderful mama to you and the memories of her will always be a continued blessing until you see her once again ... So , we say bye for now ... Knowing the great joy to come soon ... Once again , reunited with your mama and all that came before ... Now watching over us ... Ahhhhh, there are so many childhood memories with this beautiful woman, I barely know where to begin. Her daughter, Cindy and I were inseparable as young teens. My own mother was not much of a mother to me but Mrs. Greenstein loved me even though Cindy and I could be a handful at times. We went to the keys, to Sanibel Island and sat at her kitchen table hours on end. Life happened and we parted ways but I'll never forget the house I spent many many nights on feeling loved. May her memories bring you all peace. 🌸
