Jules Oaklander

NOV 1, 1931 - JUN 18, 2016

Dr. Jules Oaklander passed on June 18, 2016, knowing how very much he was loved.

He was a kind and gracious man, with a big heart of gold. His contributions to his family, his friends, his city and his world were great. He served his country in the army, he was a pharmacist, a healing physician, a supporter and philanthropist for music and the arts in Miami, an animal rights activist, and a real estate investor and a friend to so many people. Most importantly, he was a loving Father and Grandfather to his children and grandchildren, who loved him so much. His passing has left a void that will be impossible to fill. May his beloved memory be a blessing to to all that knew him and may we all walk in his light. He will be missed and loved forever.

Dear Family, I just returned from talks in Eastern Europe to this news. Jules was, as you know, the kindest person to animals, and had a real understanding of their plight, a golden heart, and animals have so many enemies that this is a precious gift to have a friend like him. Please accept condolences, wishes for your strength, and all the happy memories to come to you, from Ingrid Newkirk and everyone here at People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals.
