Sol Korval

DEC 15, 1922 - NOV 2, 2016

Sol Korval, 93, of Hallandale Beach, passed away on November 2 from complications related to a blood infection and from kidney disease. The deceased is survived by his wife, Jacqueline, of 63 years, by his son Neal and his wife Wendy, by his grandchildren Meirah and Justin and his wife Maxine, and by his brother Joey. Sol was born, raised, and lived most of his adult life in New York City. He served in the U.S Army during World War II, and worked in the kosher food industry for The B. Manischewitz Company for more than 50 years, when he retired as Regional Sales Manager and moved with his wife to Florida. Sol loved spending time with his family, playing and watching sports, and discussing politics. He will be laid to rest on Sunday, November 6th at 11:30 am at Levitt Weinstein's Beth David Memorial Gardens in Hollywood.
