Sidney Glass posted:

My dearly departed wife of 63 years and I had many twists and turns throughout our lives, it was a great ride. We married at a young age of 22 each, overcoming a language barrier, when we met, she spoke very little English and I no Spanish, we began in Williamsburgh, Brooklyn, NY we started dirt poor, but together raised two wonderful daughters and had four grandchildren. In the end, Edith acquired all the bells and whistles she wanted and as night fell, she was suddenly taken from me. It is now three years later and I think of her every day and my life has never been the same.
