Robert Robinowitz posted:

I was raised in the same larger Duquesne, Pa. neighborhood as Connie, Duquesne place. Connie such a cute, funny and likable kid with a big toothy grin. I always liked her. I reside in Bethesda, MD and appx. four decades ago. BY sheer chance I ran into Connie here in the Washington DC area. I guess she was just visiting --what a small world. She was exactly like she was as a little girl, just bigger. I ran across the notice of her death (2017) just two days ago on September 21, 2021. I was googling something about Florida and the memory of little Connie Pressman popped into head. I felt such sadness. I don't know much her life. I hope it was great. Robert Robinowitz
