While we hadn't seen Bruce in so many years, our memory of him was as a gentle and kind practitioner. That we knew some of his family members made the connection all the more unique. May he rest well and may his family, both nuclear and extended, find solace in the knowledge that he left a good name. Norma and Michael Orovitz

We love you and will always be here for you. My memory of Bruce (which you know my memory is not so great) from many, many years ago was when I talked him into getting back together with you after some petty issue I don't even remember. Bev and Glenn
