Uncle Abe,Everyday my mother looks up at the colorful photo she made of you as a 4 year old child surrounded by gold leaf frame how beautiful you were and stayed, there is not oneday that goes by that we don't sing because you left us with song and happiness in our hearts, as i write this the taers run down my cheek because i feel so blessed to have had you as part of my mishpacha i only wish i could embrace you one more time before you- you know but, i believe that your soul and presence is still alive and i promised i would visit you again in California but i could not get there as you know and with your help and the help of God i will be in Florida to pay my respect to you finally and my beautiful aunt Ruthie.If it is possible please watch over us my mom Ida. I love you uncle Abala.Your niece Suzannah .
