Dan, Last Xmas, you wrote me...your friend for the past and the next future...I couldn't imagine when I read your email it would be the last one you sent to me...Thanks to an ads... we met together for more than 15 years. I went to your house as a guest in 2001 & 2007...I never forgot what you did for my searchings in jazz records...Hope Cassandra enjoyed the time she spent with you as much as your latest wife Nola we met before....Cecil Taylor has joined you yesterday....Take care my friend,In Walked Bud !Pascal, Paris FRANCE

I knew Dan as the ex husband & everlasting friend to my friend Clorinda Arace. I even remember yet another ex wife, Nola, & how wonderful she was. On occasion we would hook up to eat out at restaurants & he'd always have researched the very best in food ... & in cost! LOL! He was full of information on a lot of topics, and ready to share it. Of course Jazz was his lifelong passion. His caring companion Cassandra was a great support for him as well during the past several years. I know his kin lived out of State, but I am sure they too were a blessing. His creativity shown in his poetry & lifestyle helped to make this world a better place. Gayle P Jackson
