Vincent McNulty

OCT 14, 1928 - FEB 8, 2018

Vincent (Mac) R. McNulty, 89, of Dania Beach, was welcomed to Heaven on February 8, 2018. He is survived by his loving wife, Lynn; his daughter, Kathleen (Kate); his son, Kevin; his brother, Harry Hess; his sister-in-law, Carolyn Hess (Robert dec'd); his brother-in law, Reginald Riker (Evelyn, dec'd) and numerous nieces and nephews and their children.

A native of New York, in his younger years he piloted the Port Jefferson Ferry, served in the Navy during WWII and in the Army during the Korea War. He was proud of his service and while in the Army received a Bronze Star and was also a recipient of a Purple Heart. After the war, he worked at Bulova for several years, and then purchased and ran K- Security Corp. until he sold the company in the 90's and moved to Florida.

Vincent loved his family, had a generous heart, a gentle soul and a smile that would brighten anyone's world. He leaves a large footprint on this earth and will be missed.
