I spent 8 years living very close the Larry. He was a lot of things...a doctor, writer, a friend, a teacher and a funny son of a gun. But he would want to be remembered as a father and a son. His kids and his dad were always in hi heart and on his mind. I will miss you, my friend. Godspeed

Wow... what a loss... I knew Larry at ASU and years after...I stood as witness to his marriage in Colorado Springs to lovely Sharon. I loved those two. Forever in my memories of great times...
