Sending my condolences and love to the wife and family of Dr. Stan Cohen. Thank you for sharing him with so many of us who are colleagues at Nova. His jokes, his caring for students, his commitment and love for NSU and what he imparted to us will live within us to share for many years to come. My God wrap his love around you during this difficult time.

I am so sorry to hear about Stan's passing. I met Stan many years ago in the early days of SECOM. He always had a kind word about everyone and he especially cared about the students. The last time I saw him he stopped me to reminisce and of course to tell me some jokes. I will miss him. Sincerely, Lori Dribin
