Jane was my first cousin. I had not seen her for many years and it was recently that I heard about her passing from her brother with whom I am in contact more now. Of course I feel badly we were not close, but that seems to be the case with a number of family members. Jane's mother and my father were siblings. A few times in my younger days we would journey to Florida. I still have little recollection of Jane and have a few more memories of my cousin Mark and many more of my aunt. Belated as it is, I share my sympathies here.
