Dear Auntie Claire, Brian, Ilene, Maureen & families, It's times like these we should be together, such sadness in our hearts, such nostalgia for those amazing beach parties, pop-up forts, porch tents, homemade Hovercrafts, snowmobiles and Christmas holidays flowing over with cocktails, Montreal smoked meat and salami, and always snow up to the roof. Thinking of you all and hoping you know that we are there in love and spirit. xoRhonda & Michael

Dear Claire, Brian, Ilene & Maureen, So sorry to hear about the passing of Sam. So many childhood memories at the country come to mind, as so much of our families lives were intertwined during those memorable years. I will remember Sam as a kind, generous person, who always had a smile on his face. Sending my condolences to you and your entire family at this difficult time. Earl Pinchuk
