Gutman, Alberto "Al", born January 4, 1959 in Havana, Cuba, peacefully passed away to join his loved ones under God's watch on February 16, 2019 in his home in Miami, Florida. Andrew S. Hague posted:

Al was a true friend from the time we first met and he personally took me around to places I would never would have thought of going to during my first campaign. He did not have to, but he believed in me. Over the years, I would stop by Cigar Crafters and simply hang out with Al and Jorge, it was always a fun experience with Al's infectious laugh, his generosity and his loyalty without ever asking for anything in return. Rest in peace my friend.
