UNGER, Caryl Rose, With gratitude for her extraordinary life, the family of Caryl Rose Unger, aka "KK", is saddened to announce her passing on October 5, 2019. Married to her beloved Dr. Harold M. Unger for 68 years, they had the love affair of a lifetime filled with adventure, romance and passion. She was born in Baltimore to Sylvia and Joseph M. After beginning her college life at Syracuse, she graduated NYU with a degree in Home Economics where she mastered the art and science of cooking in large quantities. With her husband, she created Imagination Unlimited a creative event production company and antique silver dealer specializing in Georg Jensen. In addition, they managed the Royal Palm Hotel, one of the first art deco establishments on Miami Beach built by her father in 1939. With her trademark style and grace she was famous for her welcoming and enormous Thanksgiving celebrations and for her perfect, crispy chocolate chip cookies. Among her many passions were children's literature, impromptu sing-a-long, works of art especially those of Christo and Jeanne-Claude and spreading butter on her Doritos. She made ordinary days special and special days spectacular. Caryl and Harold were two of the nicest people I have ever known. As a nurse with two young children they invited me into their home . Their children are so fortunate to have had such wonderful parents. They will be so missed
