We would go to his bakery in Norland. When we found out he reopened in pembroke pines on Taft we were thrilled. He was 60 but didn't lose his touch. Everything he made was to die for. He was always so lovely he loved and appreciated all his customers always smiling and having a kind word. When I was younger growing up in the 70's I never noticed the number tattooed. I got married in 1990 and moved out west. We became customers. One Friday, on my way home from work I stopped by to get our weekly Challah for a Shabbat I noticed the tattoo. Of course, as a Jew I immediately knew what it was. Baruch HaShem he survived the Shoa and was able to bring so much joy to so many families. Hitler did not win
