Gideon Mayani February 7, 1945 - January 5, 2020

The Love of My Life - My Angel - suddenly left me - I will remember his strong hands - when placed in mine - made me feel secure - all will be well-Gideon was a man with deep feelings - towards his dear ones and his friends

Gideon was a soldier in the Israeli Army - Top Ranked - Awarded commendations for his bravery - Gideon felt no man should be left behind - and risked his life to make sure they were brought back to their families

Gideon was involved in many endeavors - moving, construction, warehouses - with a keen eye on how to accomplish his goals

Gideon loved his rescue dogs - The Miami Heat and sitting in his recliner reading The Miami Herald-Always with a comment

Dear Gideon, You were always so warm and so giving...and 'Johnny on the Spot' when one was in need. I have never forgotten how quickly you rushed to my aide when I hit the lamp post in front of the radio station on Biscayne Boulevard in 1994. You were always looking out to help others. My wonderful memories of the numerous occasions, both yours & mine, which you & your Beloved Melinda chose to share with me will last me my whole lifetime. You will never be forgotten, and are still deeply loved! Doris
