Happy birthday mom.... You would have been 98 today. I'd give anything to spend time with you. It's a lonely world with you gone. If only I had known if only I could change history if only I could have showed you more love....regrets

One of our last good photos. You will be in my heart the rest of my life. You loved me so much. I could always count on you always there for me. I never thanked you enough or told you how much I loved you. Now it's too late. I hope there is a spirit and you know how much I loved you and miss you. ❤️
