I knew Miriam best as the woman who collected the money, created, and mailed out the birthday- and anniversary-grams for Beth Torah Sisterhood. I always made sure to send them to her on her special days; she just seemed like such a lovely person, even though I didn't know her well. I had not known that she was ill, and I will certainly miss her warm, caring presence. My love and deepest condolences to all the family. May Miriam rest in peace, as her memory continues to be a blessing for so many. Meri-Jane Rochelson
