My husband and I just received the news that Mr. Allan passed away back in February... We had the pleasure of living right above him for a short time... I will always remember him by never believing he was playing tennis at 93 years old... He was a kind gentle man and always asked about my autistic son every time he saw us. He was most intelligent and a very kind soul. We will never forget him..Warren and Amy Schwartz

Susan and I only had the pleasure of meeting Allan once when he made a brief visit up here in Maine with Tom and Marilyn. It took no time at all to realize what a kind, intelligent and wonderful man he was.So sad his passing, but truly a life well lived.Our sincere condolences go out to Marilyn and and all the family.Gerry and Susan Grigsby
