Nancy Berk Wolfe

OCT 22, 1953 - MAY 18, 2021

Nancy Berk Wolfe suddenly passed away on Tuesday, May 18th at the age of 67. Nancy was born in Miami Beach, Florida to Miriam and Herman Berk and lived her life in South Florida: as a teacher, caring sister, devoted wife, and loving mother. She was passionate about staying active and adored walks with her beloved dog Daisy. Nancy remembered every important date in the lives of friends and family — recognized with a timely text, handwritten card, or (if you were really lucky) a homemade muffin. She is survived by her children Sara and David and sister and brother-in-law Penny Jane and Gary Lynn. The family requests donations in memory of Nancy Berk Wolfe be made to the Rabbi Alexander S. Gross Hebrew Academy of Miami Beach, <https://www.hebrewacademymiami.org/giving/giving-ha> or the American Heart Association, <https://www.heart.org/> Graveside Service Wednesday, May 19th at 3:00 pm at Mt. Nebo Miami Memorial Gardens, 5505 NW 3rd St, Miami. Arrangements by Levitt-Weinstein Blasberg-Rubin-Zilbert Memorial Chapel (305) 932-2700

We were truly blessed to have Nancy as a neighbor on our street in Atlantis for almost 17 years. Her thoughtful cards, e-mails, baked treats and fresh fruit came with no strings attached and many people benefited from her unselfish acts of charity and goodwill. What I will cherish and miss the most is our almost daily discussions, after she let little Daisy run 150 feet to greet me at the driveway. Those moments brought something special to each and every day. Nancy, you will be missed...Rest in Peace. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to her family.Ted, Karolina & Dianna

Nancy, we'll carry your legacy of being a good neighbor, life is simply too short and how much of a gift I'll cherish being your neighbor❤️ I'll miss seeing you riding your bike and hoping off to say hello and catch up in our driveways. Miss waving to you as push your stroller with Daisy 🍌 around the neighborhood, I'll miss your honest advice in our conversations. We can't wait to see the mango tree grow and continue your memory always. May you Rest In Peace ❤️

I met Nancy many years ago when our sons became close friends at St. Andrews school on Boca Raton . She came over to introduce herself at a skating party for the class . Throughout the years we shared holidays , temple events , dinners and celebrations . Even though time would pass she always managed to keep in touch and we just picked up where we once left off . She was forever thoughtful and our last correspondence was on this past Mother's Day. I know Nancy will Rest In Peace as she was a religious woman who G_D will watch over now. And we shall keep David in our watch. Mary Lou Schillinger

We met Nancy six years ago looking for a house in Atlantis. Open House was almost over but there was nobody left to show us the inside of the house. Nancy saw us standing there, called the real estate agent and thanks to Nancy we now live in our home which we love, as we also love our neighborhood and our street where also Nancy lived. Over the years we have enjoyed Nancy's baking countless times. Carrot cakes, zucchini cakes and apple muffins - just to name a few. She brought us avocados and mangos. Being originally from Finland, we were not familiar with a fruit called Sapodilla. Nancy introduced us to the fruit and now it's one of my husband's favorite. Honestly I never cared for this fruit, Nancy knew it, but kept bringing Sapodillas for my husband to enjoy. We will miss Nancy walking by our house with Daisy. Nancy had a heart of gold. Nancy was a great neighbor. This street is not the same without Nancy. Love. Didi and Seppo

When I read of Nancy's passing last night I had a memory of Temple Emanuel pre school and a photo of us. This morning I went to look and here is a photo from 1957. I was shy so starting crying. My condolences to Nancy's family May she RIP. Dawn Miller
