The many, many tributes to Bernie on his Facebook wall and in private emails and conversations are more reflective of the impact of his sudden loss on so many people. Like true brothers, Bernie and I had our ups and downs over 30 years of friendship. As each day has gone by since I learned that he is gone, I have realized more and more how much he meant to me over those years. I can only imagine how painful his untimely passing must be for the Bernstone family, and I wish to convey my deepest sympathies to them. I live in North Carolina and will not be able to attend the service, unfortunately. I will be there in spirit. May he rest in peace. Dan Melmed

I was deeply saddened when I learned of the loss of our beloved Phi Sigma Kappa Brother. Mark, or "Bernie," as we called him was always there to greet you with a smile and a positive word. The time we all shared with him at GWU will remain a valued memory. I had the pleasure of re-connecting with him briefly just a few years back, and although we had both gotten a bit older, he was still the positive, warm Brother I knew of years ago. My deepest condolences to his parents and his family. He will be missed by all who had the pleasure to know him. May our beloved Brother Bernie rest In Peace. He is in my prayers. Fred Donegan
