Avi fought so hard and was so strong for such a long time, but it was time for him to go to a place of peace with no more suffering. He was always such a brave & courageous human being, who inspired all those who had the honor of knowing him. MHDSRIP

Today, August 15th, marks my 10th anniversary working at Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center. Avi was one of the very first patients I ever encountered there. I remember vividly meeting him in the CTU, in a side room that had a bed. I'm sure we spoke at least an hour, the first time we met. Avi was "THAT" person. He always put you at ease and made you feel like you were speaking to a friend, no matter what the circumstance. The world is a better place for having had him here on earth and today, G-d is crying because he has moved on. The storms in Boca Raton are so unpredictable, that I am hoping to watch the live stream. Thinking of you Karen, at this most difficult time, and may Avi's memory be a blessing.
