Stan was one of a kind; a very special person. We met many years ago and immediately developed an indelible and trusting relationship. He became my conscience and my cheerleader. We truly belonged to a mutual admiration society. He was the most compassionate and generous person I have ever known. There was no one who he felt he could not help and did whatever he could to make them better. He felt your pain and he felt your joy. He will remain in my heart forever and I will hear his voice encouraging me in times of trouble and his excitement with each success. Stan left this world a better place which is more than anyone can hope for. His legacy will live on in our hearts and our memories. I am deeply saddened by the loss of my special friend Stan and I will miss him dearly. Rich Berman
