Frances Rose Weinstock

JUL 13, 1932 - AUG 25, 2021

Born Francesca Covone in New Haven, Connecticut, Frances Rose Weinstock was born with the voice of an angel and introspective heart of a poet. With the loving support of her seamstress mother, Felicia Pacelio, Frances was trained as a lyric soprano and concert pianist at The Juilliard School. During her studies, Frances Rose met and married Isaac Weinstock. After planting their roots in her beloved Hollywood, Florida in 1959, they raised four beautiful and talented children Leah, David, Rachael, and Deborah. During her brilliant life, Frances Rose helped Isaac write his memoir “The Seven Years”, recounting his experiences as a child of the Holocaust; she became the lead soloist in the Temple Sinai Choir in Hollywood; she shared her love of music as a gifted and supportive piano teacher for young and old alike; and, during tumultuous times, she manifested her gift of words as a ground-breaking female entrepreneur whence she began sharing her poetry of love, hope, friendship, and family in her popular nationwide line of greeting cards and posters under Frances Weinstock Originals, Inc. Frances Rose was preceded in death by her ex-husband, Isaac; her father, Matteo; her mother, Felicia; her sister, Christine DeSerres; her grandson, Mikhail Neiman Scandarion; her nephew, Jonathan DeSerres; and her brother-in-law, Frederick DeSerres. She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Leah and Randal

“We’re One”

We’re One with Creation_ _

One with The Light.

We’re One with the stars _ _

We’re Eternity’s child.

We’re One with the Cosmos_ _

We’re One with all life.

Our energy pulses_ _

Euphoric, alive.

Evolving in Spirit_ _

Through myriad planes,

Our souls seek out wisdom

In limitless ways.

Our home is forever_ _

Within and beyond.

We’re One with each other_ _

In spiritual bond.”
