Frederick Lee Pearlman

SEP 28, 1955 - DEC 29, 2022

Frederick Lee Pearlman, of Aventura, Florida passed away at age 67 on December 29, 2022. Son of Hubert and Lucy Pearlman, he is survived by his wife, Autilia Pearlman, brothers George and Henry Pearlman, In laws Bob and Florence Krulik, nieces Emily Krulik, Lindsey Pearlman, and Samantha Pearlman and nephew Max Pearlman. Fred grew up in Rockaway beach, New York, where he was well known as a gifted piano player who played with several bands. The most well-known being the Cranberry Illusion. He attended Adelphi Academy and went on to Quinipiac college and then trained as a stenographer. This led to a career as a court reporter as well as secretarial and administrative work for Florida State University and Miami Dade county. He moved to Aventura , Florida in his late twenties and met Autilia Devivo and soon married for a happy life in the sunshine together where they shared many of the same passions. During those years, his friends and neighbors enjoyed hearing him play the piano in the poolside community room at his condominium as well as his pleasant company. A Graveside Service will be held on Tuesday, January 3, 2023 at 11:30 am at Beth David Memorial Gardens, 3201 N 72nd Avenue, Hollywood, Florida. Arrangements by Levitt Weinstein Blasberg-Rubin-Zilbert Memorial Chapel (305) 932-2700.

Mitch Fredricks lit a candle in honor of Frederick.

My condolences to the family. I was hoping to touch base and found this notice. I grew up in Neponsit, Rockaway Beach and attended Berkekey Institute with Fred in Park Slope Brooklyn. We always carpooled to and from with a few others from Rockaway. Our mons took turns driving. I remember his mom, Lucy, driving us in their station wagon. I remember sleeping over at his house, a big house...he had a drum set and would always play In-A-Gadda-Da-Vuda by Irion Butterfly. He had a great personality and was "real". I remember the goid times and it sounds like he led a full life, I'm sorry we did not have the opportunity to connect with again..he is in my prayers tonight. May his memory always be a blessing. 🙏🙏🥹
