With surprise and sadness I recently learned of Susan's passing. We were friends for some time after we met in the 80's. When Susan moved from Calgary, our lives gradually moved in different directions. I remember Susan's yearning to live her life to the fullest, be her best, and to help others. I appreciated her zest for life, strong determination, and her holistic health interests. Thank you Susan for the many fond memories. My husband, Allan, and I offer our deepest condolences to the Switzer family. Laurel and Allan Twigge

It is with deep sadness that I extend my condolences to Susan's family. I am Gertrude (Trudy) Leacock Thom and I knew Susan for over 32 years here in Miami. We both went to lunch on Saturday 11th Feb. 2023. I went to Miami Beach last night to dinner at Joes with a friend and after dinner I told her I have to take her to meet Susan who I have not heard from in the past 2 months. I left several messages but they went to voicemail. I thought maybe she went out of country doing one of her holistic courses. I even sent a text on Memorial Day updating her on my daughter Destinee who recently graduated from college. In that text on Memorial Day I also invited her over but did not get a response. Last night I kept knocking ... no answer so we went to the cigar shop next door and that's where I was told the sad news. I got very emotional and my dear friend Theresa assured me that Susan was looking down on us. I did share my phone contact with Angel. I would love to share hundreds of memories of the cherished relationship Susan had with my family over the years.
