Ms. Kay was my first grade teacher back in 1969 at Crestview Elementary. She was always kind and helped us learn to count and grow as children. She was loved by so many. Rest in Peace Ms Kay. - Cathy Long Mimbs

Thanks Cathy for sharing your memories of my mother as a teacher. My brothers & I saw her grading papers and writing lesson plans, but she kept school separate from her home life. Even when we were out & about and she'd run into a former student, she was polite, introducing us, But she respected the time she had with her children. Thus, it's so comforting to read your post to know she cared so much about her students and who they'd become.

Mrs Kay would take me to Hebrew School with her daughter , my friend, Mona. I have fond memories of her growing up. She only lived a block down the street from me. May her memory be a blessing to her entire family. Rhonda Gelfman Szabo
