Celine lit a candle in honor of Sanford.

I meet Sanford in 2020 when I started working at the JCC. He was a wonderful Human Being, being kind to everybody. I remember him telling me that every year he took all his children and his grand children to a cruise so they can enjoy spending time together. He was smart, funny and nice. I took him also as my business lawyer to draw a business contract for me. May his memory be a blessing and that he will be seating next to Hashem. My prayers are with his entire family and may you be consoled from Heaven.
