Margo Mintzer

AUG 16, 1936 - OCT 3, 2023

Margo “Crone Goddess” Sucharow Mintzer, 87, of Aventura, Florida, born in New York, NY on August 16, 1936, passed away peacefully on October 2, 2023. Crone Goddess Margo was predeceased by her sister Rona Levin and brother-in-law Stuart Levin and is survived by her brother Larry Sucharow and sister-in-law Fran Sucharow, son Joseph Mintzer, daughter Brooke Carroll and son-in-law Chuck Carroll, son Glenn Mintzer and daughter-in-law Jennifer Mintzer, grandchildren Brett and Simonet Carroll, Torrey Carroll, Skylar Carroll, Max and Hannah Mintzer, and Samantha Mintzer, great grandchildren Sara Eidelman, Ceci Eidelman, Eva Eidelman and Kaia Carroll, nieces and nephews Jodi and Richard Edwards, Keith and Elissa Levin and Michael and Michelle Levin.

The Crone touched many people’s lives throughout her years, often with words, a kiss on each cheek and a hug. Some were people in her daily life or family, and some were simply passing through. She was spiritual, caring, and full of life, forever seeking to learn more, especially about Judaism and the universe. She loved being active, she was not one to sit still for long. Family and friends were her focus, always taking joy in sharing time together. She never shied away from a new experience whether spiritual or physical. She lived her life on her own terms, not bothered by the world around her. Just breathe, dance down an aisle, shake a tambourine and hug a tree every chance you get.

In lieu of flowers please consider a contribution in her name to the Parkinson’s Moving Day, <https://tinyurl.com/3s2u4f4t> or The Institute of Jewish Knowledge and Learning, ijkl.org.
