Rochelle Linda Katcher

APR 3, 1944 - NOV 7, 2023

Daughter of Harry & Shirley, Mother of David Grandmother of Zachary.

Shelly was like most of us- more than anything she wanted to be accepted and loved. She loved to laugh, to hear stories and to find a good bargain.

Even though she was a skinny as she could be, Shelly loved bagels, Chinese food and Kentucky Fried Chicken.

While living at Palm Garden she would buy everyone KFC. She thought of others all the time and cared for people deeply. Most of all, her family.

Through good times and bad times, she had a will to survive and come out stronger. She taught David perseverance and to never give up.

Shelly loved her daughter-in-law Ali as if she were her own daughter and couldn't get enough of Zach she loved him dearly.

She was very generous to her family even if it meant having less for herself.

Shelly will be missed dearly along with all her bigger than life personality shenanigans, daily phone calls always needing to be in the know all day.

We love you and will never forget you,

Ali, David & Zachary

Arrangements by Levitt Weinstein Blasberg Rubin Zilbert (305) 932-2700.
