Lili was a very sweet person. We met here in Miami Beach and had a shared love for Taylor Swift. Instantly her warm personality drew me in and we connected for a year online. I miss her sweet presence but pray for her spirit to soar and know she is free from pain. We love you Lili. ☐☐☐☐☐

Lilli was one of my first cancer friends. She was the first person I talked to at my first support group dinner, after Covid shut them down. I was drawn to her charismatic personality and vibrant pink hair ☐ She made me feel loved and not alone. She taught me that you can still be happy, silly, and beautiful through all the awful stuff cancer puts us through. We bonded over crazy hair styles, our Disney/baby yoda obsessions, and love of Taylor Swift! She was one of, if not, the toughest and most badass women I've ever met. She handled everything that was thrown at her with strength and grace! I am so grateful to have known her, and be a small part of her life/battle. I hope she is finally at peace, and eating everything she wants to!! love you Lilli ❤️ ☐
