I had the zchut to have known David since college . My fondest memories are the four years spent at yeshiva when every shabbas and simcha I spent with David , Andy , Michael , Seymour and hermia . They were my family those years and the connections and memories have been with me all these years . David was an extraordinary person with a heart and nephesh of a tzadik . טיט was appropriately named as it means love and he loved all and was beloved by all who knew him . May his memory always be for a blessing Sandy and Carmen
