Dear Ken,Wherever you are - Many people genuinely loved you. You were very funny, but you just had a quality of knowing how to have people like you.I haven't seen you for years, but the last time I saw you, you gave me a hug at the WaWa in Narberth area, and it was just like we were kids again.Life took us in different directions, but you were a true friend, when we were together as buddies - from the football, basketball, baseball, to the music, hanging out, a bit of drugging, and the non-stop laughing - you were the best.Of the 5 best years in my life - the year we shared a place in Ardmore, PA, and laughed everyday - was in the top 5 years of my life. I was rarely happier, for a longer period in time, - one year straight - than in that year. We laughed every day. I remember your brother Mitchell came over one day and saw us laughing, and he said, is this the way it is everyday with you two - and it was. Everyday was a riot.I remember the night you discovered you could play guitar, when you were playing Led Zeppelin on a broomstick - and I noticed that you seemed like you were really playing. I gave you my guitar and in 30 seconds you were playing Led Z. note for note. It was amazing.All the ball games we played, the music, the laughing, and most of the time, the kindness towards me, made me realize then and now how important you were to me.It would have been good to see you one more time. I really miss you Kenny. I wish I could joke around with you one more time. Maybe I'll see you in another dimension.##imported-begin##Murray##imported-end##
