To the surviving family of Helena Keddy I'm writing to you because I am not in position to offer my condolences in person. What helped me with cope the lost of the love one is the hope of the resurrection. Abraham had reason to trust the resurrection, because God allowed that both him and his wife Sarah regain miraculously their breeding powers when they were already very old to have children (Genesis 18:9-11; 21:1-3) In addition John 5:28 explains that someday "all those in the memorial tombs will be resurrected and 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "death is to be brought to nothing". Death seems to be a vicious enemy that is stronger than us; no matter how hard we try to outrun death, he keeps getting closer; there seems to be no escape. The scriptures show there is an escape. I sincerely hope these help you to cope with your lost. As one of Jehovah's Witnesses, I engage in this activity because I am interested in sharing the hope that only the Bible can give us. Our work is not commercial. It is our hope that someday soon we will be able to talk to you personally. Please feel free to get in touch with us at cosria@gmail.com. Sincerely Mark
