IRVING... MR. "O"! Dr. H.J. Foxx etc. I really miss talking to you, we had a lot good times, hard times and tons of laughs over the last 25+ years! You were as "sharp as a tack" and you always seemed to remember names and what was going on in the world..I still really need your advice and a push sometimes! LIKE RIGHT NOW, TODAY!!! You are MISSED! John, Baron and Christian POINDEXTER###imported-begin##John Poindexter###imported-end##

Mr O will always be remembered in the pocket of heart as someone had the ability to see things in a practical, shrewd and comical way. His energy (both physical and mental) always amazed me. Although he is not here to touch our lives with his wisdom or infectious smile and disposition, he will always be in our memories.###imported-begin##Jeanne###imported-end##

Dear Mr. O; I know you are in a better place now and I will try to cry as I write this...Mr. O had a knack of always bringing out the best in a person, through his words or his actions. He had the ability to believe in you when sometimes you didn't believe in yourself. Mr. O was a great friend and mentor to me.. always offered great advice anytime. He loved horses and had a picture in his office of 2 stallions whom he had to leave at a ranch. He was a great storyteller but his stories were always of his own experiences. He was a giver, and not a taker.. down to the clothes off his back if need be. He aly stood behind his decision.. to quote a phrase from the vernacular.. "He possessed a set of balls!". He was always fair and kind to all he met. His smile made you smile.. was very infectious. Mr. O you will be sorely missed and I know that when my name is called one day.. I hope you might one of the folks waiting for me at the pearly gates!! I love you, Mr. O and will miss you greatly. I know you are in a better place and free from pain and suffering. That is my only light of joy in your departure. RIP, my friend!###imported-begin##John Hochstaedt###imported-end##

When I met Mr. Irving "O"; and worked at the executive airport with him, I was delighted, I will always remember his optimistic outlook on life, he had a diligent and disciplined approach. He was never intimidated or frightened when confronted with challenges, when he rose to these challenges, he proved to himself and drew the attention of his colleagues, consequently opportunities were presented to him, and his life continued to be fortunate. Life's comforts were a pleasure for him to enjoy, and financial matters were not a great concern. He never gave in to greed. He had great leadership qualities. Also, I would just like to add, there was never a boring moment, with him at business times. My blessings to have had a great boss!!!##imported-begin##Laurie Gelardi##imported-end##
