Janice was such a wonderful person. Even though she had such a hard life she was there for you. Janice certainly enjoyed mah jongg which she was always trying to get me to learn. She took time to volunteer at century villages theater and library even when she was not feeling well. To Janice my being a lesbian was no big deal, I was just one of her friends. Janice always talked about her best friend that lived in another state, her niece and her granddaughters and of course shopping for clothes. i will miss her.##imported-begin##Patti Winston##imported-end##
