Dear Debbie, We are so sorry to hear about your father, and just found out or would have written this sooner. Our memories go all the way back to Jeffersons, and that's awhile ago. We also have nice memories of spending Saturday nights playing Mah Jong and enjoying each others company. I'm sure you know how proud he was of you, as he told us the few times we did see or talk to him. Please accept our condolences. Fondly, Linda and Barry###imported-begin##Linda and Barry Levine###imported-end##

WHAT A SHOCK TO see your obituary! You said you would live forever! Or at least live to enjoy the fruits of your labor. Many memories we shared from A to Z, Marlowe. I won't forget our many memories & many many years of a special bond, a special friendship, & our romance. I am sad I didn't say goodbye or at least talk to you the last time you called me. I didn't know it would be the last time. I hope G-d watches over your soul and you rest in peace. My condolences Debbie. Your father was very proud of you. It was nice to talk to you. I am sorry under these terrible circumstances. Your father was very good to me. Karen###imported-begin##KAREN###imported-end##
