Alvin M. Sandler

JUL 4, 2012

Sandler, Alvin M., Passed away peacefully on Wednesday morning July 4, 2012. Born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 26, 1924, Alvin was the son of the late Celia Sandler. Alvin is survived by his beloved wife of 61 years, Harriet Sandler, his sons Mr. Stuart (Marianne Sabo) Sandler, Dr. Raymond (Rivkah) Sandler and daughter Ms. Caryl (Martin) Shuham; grandsons Jesse Sandler, Tuvia Sandler, Benjamin Shuham, Matthew Shuham, Simon Shuham and Chaim Sandler; granddaughters Dallas Sandler, Shoshana (Moshe) Reznitsky and Geena Sandler; great granddaughter Leah Reznitsky, nephew Steven (Deborah) Rolfe and niece Merle (Barnett) Kamen as well as many, caring great nieces and great nephews. Alvin was a wonderful, loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather and was adored by all who knew him. Alvin was recognized twice with Bronze Stars during WWII for rare displays of courage and fought valiantly in the Battle of the Bulge. After the war, Alvin attended the Johns Hopkins University and received a BS degree in Industrial Engineering. He went on to earn his JD degree from the University of Maryland. Alvin had a long and distinguished career at the Westinghouse Corporation retiring as its first ethics officer. Alvin loved golf, swimming and working with various organizations. Alvin and Harriet were among the founders of Beth Israel Synagogue in Owings Mills, Maryland and Alvin served several terms as the president of Del Prado on the Bay Condominium in Aventura, Florida. But more than anything, Alvin loved his wife and family. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Beth Israel Congregation, 3706 Crondall Lane, Owings Mills, Maryland 21117, (410) 654-0800 or the Del Prado Minyan Club 18071 Biscayne Blvd. Aventura, Florida 33160. Funeral Services - Thursday July 5, 2012 4 pm at Levitt Weinstein/Beth David 3201 NW 72nd St. Hollywood, Florida. Arranged by Levitt Weinstein NMB (305) 932-2700
