Steve J. Waldman

JUN 11, 1941 - SEP 3, 2012

WALDMANSTEVEN J., We are saddened by the loss of Steven J. Waldman. Steve grew up as a very popular, athletic person in Miami Beach. He loved playing basketball for the Hi Tides and was VP of his high school fraternity, Knights. Tragically, he lost both his loving parents his senior year which took the wind out of his sails. His road ahead had many twists and turns and he was always heard to say, 'I can't catch a break'. He smoked cigarettes and cigars and lost his battle to lung cancer. He fought his battle like a champ and was fortunate to have the kind and caring attention of his friend Carol Scott who would massage his feet while in the hospital. He liked that very much. Steve is missed by his buddies, Rich, Stu, Mike, Daryl, Louie, Jack, Jeff, Tommy and many more. BLASBERG-RUBIN-ZILBERT (305) 538-6371

Steve and I worked together at Roland in the early 1970's. He was one of my favorite people I worked with. His mellow attitude and easy ways made him a pleasure to hang with. We had a lot of fun together. I've seen him a handful of times since then, but he will be dearly missed.##imported-begin##Terry Dellerson##imported-end##
